New Sustainability Minor Advisor

The Sustainability Studies team has a new addition! Lauren McCarthy is the new Sustainability Studies Minor Advisor. Lauren is also the scholarship coordinator for CFANS and has experience with scholarships, orientation services, and Honors students from the University of Iowa. She has a BA in Political Science and International Studies from the University of Iowa and a MPhil in Latin American Studies. Feel free to contact Lauren with any questions regarding the minor or if you are interested in meeting with her. You can reach her at lfmccart@umn.edu or (612)626-5602. For more information on advising and enrollment in the Sustainability Studies Minor, consult our website!

Food Day 2012: Jon Foley, Director of IonE is Key Note Speaker
On October 26 and 27, the University of Minnesota System will be hosting its 2nd Annual conference for students involved in sustainability from all 5 of the U of M campuses. The event is titled Student Engagement Leadership Forum (SELF) Sustain, and will bring students together from various disciplines to talk about sustainability and campus development. The forum will take place at the University of Minnesota-Duluth, so you can think of it as a business trip for your organization and for yourself! UMTC has funds available to send 16 students "on scholarship" to this event. This includes transportation, meals, and an overnight stay at the Cloquet Forestry Center. Visit our website for more information on how to apply.
